

EASTER MONDAY WALK. June and I have planned a walk for Easter Monday. We shall meet by All Saints Church in Trysull at 10.00am. Please note the change of time, the pub stops serving food at 2.00pm and we don't want to chance missing our meal. If you know anyone who is joining us please let them know the change of time. The walk is about 5 and half miles. It includes roads, grass, dirt, and gravel tracks. There is a steady gradient leading to Tinkers Castle. Part of the walk is across Farm land. There are refreshments at the Bell in Trysull on our return or there are also refreshments at The Vineyard. We won't be visiting the Vineyard en route. The weather will be fine I'm sure, you know what Bank Holiday Monday weather can be. Call me on 07872537070 if it looks to be inclement. See you on Bank Holiday Monday morning. Ivor.

MONDAY FOCUS. 29 April at 8.00pm in the Coffee Bar. "Cavalier Dogs & Roundhead Rogues". Local historian Mary Bodfish will tell us about the English Civil War and the upheavals and damage it brought to the area between Wolverhampton, Lichfield and Birmingham as people took sides.
