VINE AT HOME. Details of the Big Church Sing at Home today for harvest can be found on the Beckminster Church Website.

HARVEST TEA BAGS: As you are probably aware, we have given out some Tea Bags to our Luncheon Club and those unable to join us at Beckminster. The food was kindly donated by the Community Team at Asda Wolverhampton. An email has been sent to Asda thanking them for their kind generosity and we have received the following reply. Tim Lorimer.

No problem at all, glad the small amount helped.
Please email me again end of November and
I will endeavour to get items for the Christmas Hamper Bag.
Regards to all at Beckminster

TRIO: This time last year we asked members to consider their giving to Beckminster, using the TRIO (The Responsibility Is Ours) framework. The response was excellent and I must, again, say thank you to everyone who has supported us by increasing their giving. One of the aims of TRIO is to remind each of us that we should review regularly how we support the church and that, like so many other things, the costs of running our church increase year on year.

The last 6 months have been difficult for all of us. Most charities have had reduced income; for Beckminster that has been mainly because external groups have not been able to use our premises since March, although some have now returned and others are hoping to be back in early 2021.

Your response last year meant that we were able to reduce our weekly deficit. However, across the year from September 2019 to August 2020 we still had a shortfall of around £250 each week. May I remind you of the TRIO letters and leaflets from last year and that the purpose of these was not just to produce a one-off response, but to ask each of us to continue to consider how we respond on a regular basis. I am delighted that some members have already increased their giving during 2020 – thank you.

Once again thank you for all you give.

George Tonks
Church Treasurer

THANK YOU to all the church family for their prayers and thinking of me. Love Marilyn Bose.

MANY THANKS to everyone who prepared my delicious Harvest tea. Although belated, I would also like to thank friends at Beck for all the cards, telephone calls and support they have given me since Donald's death in April. I must single out Phil and Wendy Healey who have been so diligent in their doorstep visits. Janet Rushton.

THANK YOU for my delicious afternoon tea from the harvest at Beckminster. I feel very honoured to have been chosen to receive it, and I enjoyed it. Mary Harris.

TO OUR FRIENDS AT BECK: Thank you all for the harvest gifts brought by Wendy and John, our best wishes to you all. Lewis and Dot.

THANK YOU. It was lovely to be remembered at Harvestime and it was strange to receive rather than to give. Many thanks. Doreen Morgan.
