Epistle : 1 Timothy 1: 12 – 17 read by Sue Reed

Metrical Psalm 51 vs 1 – 10 (To be sung)

My God, be gracious, show consideration,
according to your kindness and affection.
According to the wealth of your compassion,
clear my transgression.

Completely wash away my great offences,
and cleanse me from their fitting consequences.
For truly my transgressions, yes, I see them.
I cannot flee them.

Against you only is my sin directed,
and in your sight my guilt is all collected.
You will be just and pure in bringing vengeance,
when you pass sentence.

From birth my guilt has ever been beside me;
conceived in sin, I nurture it inside me.
But you delight in honesty and vision,
your hidden wisdom.

With hyssop purge me, symbol of forgiveness,
and wash me, white as snow, to make me sinless.
May shattered bones rejoice with exaltation
and jubilation.

Ignore my anger, my unjust aggression;
O wipe away my error and transgression.
Establish and renew my soul to guide me,
clean heart inside me.
