Proposed District Merger with Birmingham - come and have your say
There was strong support at both Synods recently for continuing conversations with a view to merger in September 2025. A next step will be determining a preferred model of District leadership and any structures flowing from that. Can you help be the architect of these plans? You are invited to a joint meeting of both Districts which is open to anyone in the District at 2.30pm TODAY Sunday 21st May at Walsall Central Hall. Just come along and have your say. Additionally, any suggestions or feedback about the merger proposals will be gratefully received at any time. Please send them via Richard Lockley at admin@wsmethodist.org.uk
